Our inaugural Festival of Trees was nothing short of a spectacular triumph, exceeding all expectations and demonstrating the profound generosity of our community.

Thanks to dedicated sponsors and enthusiastic attendees, we successfully raised nearly $400,000. These vital funds were directly channeled into bolstering our Emergency Department, enabling us to acquire crucial, life-saving equipment. This included advanced ultrasound machines – indispensable tools for rapid diagnostics in times of crisis and trauma – and state-of-the-art trauma stretchers, ensuring the safe and efficient transport of patients when every second counts. Your past support not only provided tangible resources but also instilled confidence and hope within our healthcare system.

Building on this remarkable success, we are thrilled to announce that this year's Festival of Trees will focus its fundraising efforts on an equally essential area: our Surgical Services Department. This is a department that truly touches everyone, from life-altering procedures and critical interventions to routine surgeries that improve quality of life. The need for cutting-edge technology, specialized training, and modernized facilities within Surgical Services is continuous, and your partnership will empower us to deliver the highest standard of care to every patient who walks through our doors.

By partnering with the Festival of Trees, you become an instrumental force in enhancing the capabilities of our Surgical Services department. Your sponsorship will directly contribute to advancements that lead to faster recoveries, better outcomes, and a stronger, more resilient healthcare system for all. Join us in making an enduring impact on the health and well-being of our community, because when it comes to surgical care, excellence is not just a goal – it's a necessity that your support can help us achieve.
